Travel Resources

Throughout the guide, Oklahoma is divided into six regions or "countries" to make trip planning easier.

NORTHWESTERN | Red Carpet Country

CENTRAL | Frontier Country

SOUTHWESTERN | Great Plains-Country

NORTHEASTERN | Green Country

SOUTH CENTRAL | Chickasaw Country

SOUTHEASTERN | Choctaw Country

Reserve a Cabin, Lodge or Campsite

Oklahoma State Parks guests can reserve lodging and campsites online at TravelOK.com/Parks. Online reservations can be made up to 11 months in advance using a credit card for payment. Some reservations may require a minimum two-night stay depending on season and occupancy. Cabins and lodges require a three-night minimum stay on holiday weekends during peak season.

Get Social

Those wanting the latest Oklahoma travel tips, news and contests should follow TravelOK and Oklahoma State Parks on social media. There are also Facebook pages for each state park that travelers can follow to find out what's new and get information on special events.

Bring Your Pet to the Parks

With lots of room to play and terrain to explore, the Oklahoma State Parks are ideal destinations for a vacation with a furry friend. Pets are welcome in all the parks as long as they are kept on leashes no longer than 10 feet, supervised at all times and cleaned up after. Pets are allowed in the cabins at many parks for an additional fee. See each park's page in this guide for more information on pet-friendly cabins.

Travel Tips

- Oklahoma is in the Central Time Zone, except for the Kenton area in the Panhandle, which is in the Mountain Time Zone.
- Seat-belt use is mandatory for everyone in the car. and additional child passenger restraint laws apply for children. For information, visit ohso.ok.gov.

Pikepass | TRNPK

Oklahoma has more than 600 miles of turnpike. Having a Pikepass makes traveling easier, allowing drivers to bypass the tollbooth and continue driving to their destination. Pikepasses can be ordered online at pikepass.com, by phone at (800) 745-3727 or at one of three store locations in Tulsa and Oklahoma City. The pass is also available at select tag agencies. Visit pikepass.com to find one near you. Kansas' and Texas' tollway systems are now interoperable with Oklahoma's. so turnpike transponders from those states can be used on Oklahoma Turnpike Authority Roads.

Call Ahead

Spavinaw

Travelers should keep in mind that the COVID-19 pandemic caused many businesses to alter their operating schedules. While efforts have been made to ensure the information in this book was correct at press time — and that up-to-date information is available on TravelOK.com we recommend calling in advance.

What's New at Oklahoma State Parks

Over the past few years, the Oklahoma State Parks system has received some significant upgrades. Here's just a sample of the changes that have been made:

Online Reservations

All of the state parks lodging — lodge rooms, cabins, RV sites, yurts and tent sites — can be reserved online with real-time reservations. Visitors can reserve a spot, usually up to 11 months in advance, and know it will be there waiting when they arrive.

State Parks App

The Oklahoma State Parks app, which is available free in Apple's App Store and in the Google Play Store, offers a wealth of information on each park, including events, trail maps and lodging deals. There are also links for users to book camping and lodging reservations and tee times for the state park golf courses.

Dynamic Pricing

The state parks have modernized their pricing structure so that pricing is dependent upon actual conditions rather than a published rate sheet. Like most hotel reservation sites, the system dynamically changes prices based upon what's actually happening. Rate increases and discounts are calculated depending upon occupancy, local conditions and even the weather. That means guests booking only a few days in advance might find a special discount.

Facility Improvements

Within the parks, massive upgrades have been implemented to dramatically improve the park experience. Those include new and improved cabins, renovated lodges, better roads, prettier landscaping and better signage. A portion of the department's budget is now dedicated to maintenance to ensure things work better, look better and are more energy efficient.

New Technology

Connectivity has been improved at a number of parks, along with access to electricity for device chargers and fans in some campgrounds.

Parking Passes

Visitors will need to purchase a parking pass — starting at $8 a day per car for visitors with Oklahoma or Oklahoma tribal license plates — to park at many state parks. They can be purchased online in advance or at the park, with one-day, three-day and year-long passes available. Each paid lodging and campsite reservation will include a parking pass for one passenger vehicle that will cover the duration of the reservation.

The following groups receive discounts with proper documentation:

- · Honorably discharged veterans who are residents of Oklahoma can receive a free parking pass.
- Oklahoma residents 62 years of age and older and their spouses can receive a free parking pass.
- Individuals who have been certified as totally disabled under state and federal law and their spouses can receive 50 percent off the price of a parking pass.

Discounts cannot be combined.

Soundscapes Albums

Take the sounds of the Oklahoma State Parks anywhere you go with two albums of ambient sounds from the parks, one of which is accompanied by instrumental music. To download the albums, visit TravelOK.com/Soundscapes.

Lodging & Camping Discounts

More than 30 Oklahoma State Parks provide plenty of options for lodging, camping and outdoor fun for travelers visiting Oklahoma. Here's a look at some of the great deals found at state parks throughout the year:

Sweetheart Deal

February: Guests can save 15 percent off their stay.

Extend Your Stay Getaway

Year-round: Guests who book a seven-day stay in a cabin or lodge room receive 20 percent off.

Military Discounts

Year-round: All active, retired or former military personnel can get a 10 percent discount off their stay.

Senior Discounts

Year-round:

- Seniors 62 and over get a discount on state park lodge rooms and cabins Sunday through Thursday nights (excluding holidays) during peak season and any night during the offseason.
- State parks offer a $2 discount on the base rate per night for campers 62 and over with proper identification.
- Some state parks have fees for certain day-use areas. These fees are waived for seniors 62 and over who are Oklahoma residents.
- Weekend golf discounts are offered on state park courses for senior golfers on specific tee times.

Camping discounts are applicable to the base rate only.

To understand the essence of our community, start at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum. It tells of the attack on April 19, 1995, that killed 168 people and injured hundreds more. It also tells of what came next: a response so overwhelming in its generosity it was soon called the Oklahoma Standard.

Today, we're a community grounded in hope and healing, strength and resiliency. We come together on this Sacred Ground to find Common Ground. And we open our arms to embrace and inspire other people and other communities.

Whether travelers want to cruise Route 66, cast at line in Oklahoma's prime fishing lakes or visit the state's one-of-a-kind cultural attractions, the Oklahoma Tourism & Recreation Department's guides and brochures provide plenty of vacation inspiration.

In addition to the annual Oklahoma Travel Guide, a variety of specialty publications are available, including:

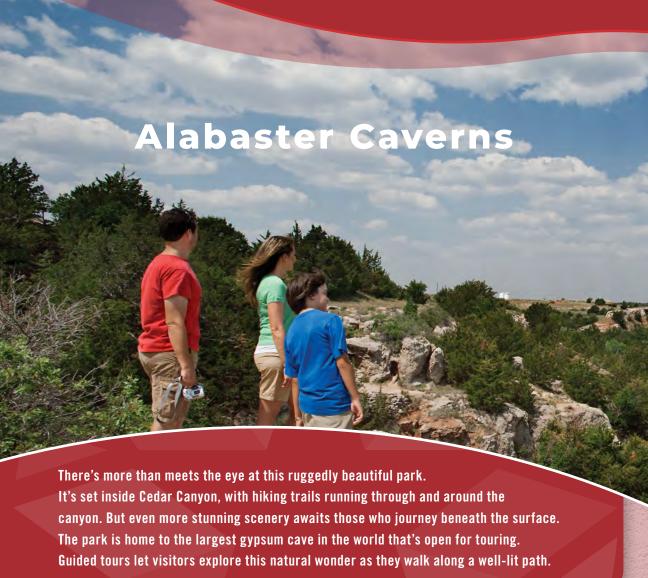

- Oklahoma Fall Foliage Guide: This publication highlights beautiful autumn destinations across Oklahoma. It also features details on fall festivals, fall farm fun and urban foliage viewing spots.
- Oklahoma Fishing Trail Guide: This 48-page guide highlights the 60 lakes and rivers on the Oklahoma Fishing Trail. It provides anglers with a wealth of information about each destination, including fish habitat, boater access and amenities.
- Oklahoma Motorcycle Guide: The 14 rides in this guide will help riders take advantage of Oklahoma's curvy roads and stunning scenery. Details on parks, historical attractions and dining destinations along each route are included.

Travelers can have the guides shipped to their home free of charge by visiting TravelOK.com/Brochures or calling (800) 652-6552. More than 70 other free brochures and maps are also available on the website, including the official Oklahoma state map and Oklahoma Agritourism publications.

Oklahoma travel publications are also available at Tourism Information Centers, Oklahoma State Parks and many tourist attractions and accommodations around the state.

Park Safety Rules and Regulations

- All vehicles must have a whip attached to the ORV that extends 10 feet from the ground to the top of the whip.
- ➤ All vehicles must have a 6-by-12-inch bright, solid orange flag attached; flag must be 10 feet from the ground.
- ➤ All vehicles must have bright white front and red rear lights powered by the vehicle for night use.
- Dune buggies and 4x4 vehicles must have seatbelts for each passenger and a roll bar sufficient to support the weight of the vehicle.
- Full coverage riding gear is strongly suggested. Riding is at your own risk. Please stay within the posted park boundaries.
- All operators under age 18 must wear a helmet.
- Double riding is not allowed on ATVs unless the vehicle is specifically manufactured for a passenger.
- > No alcohol is allowed in the riding area.

Thrill-seekers can roar across golden sand dunes on off-road vehicles at this park. Dune buggies, jeeps, side-by-sides, UTVs and dirt bikes are all welcome in this mini-desert where the dunes tower 25 to 75 feet in the air. There's an observation deck for those who don't want to ride, and spacious, plentiful campsites make it easy to keep the fun going for several days.

adjacent refuge. The lush park stands in stark contrast to the refuge's barren salt flats, which are the only place in the world where visitors can dig for hourglass-shaped selenite crystals. Located just below the surface, the crystals can be retrieved with a shovel or hand spade. The area is one of Oklahoma's best bird-watching spots, and its trails provide ample wildlife-viewing opportunities.

Note: Crystal digging is only available from April 1 through Oct. 15 because the refuge is a critical habitat for migrating whooping cranes and other birds. Guests will need to bring a shovel or spade. Please call the park for more detailed information.

Greenleaf

With a fascinating nature center, a mini-golf course, a kids' fishing pond and a splash pad, this park has a well-earned reputation as a family fun spot. It's also renowned for its beauty, with rustic stone cabins — several of which are freshly renovated — and dense forests. Deer and wild turkey roam the grounds, and a hiking trail crosses over a scenic swinging bridge. Anglers will love Greenleaf Lake, which is loaded with crappie, catfish and black bass.

Beavers Bend State Park

Cedar Creek Golf Course at Beavers Bend State Park

Broken Bow

With two running streams and fairways rimmed with pine and hardwoods, this course in the foothills of the Kiamichi Mountains provides a picture-perfect backdrop for a round of golf. The course reopened in 2021 after renovations to replace the greens with Champion ultradwarf Bermuda grass; some trees were also removed to open up better views of Broken Bow Lake. The par-72 course plays to 6,582 yards from the back tees.

Fort Cobb State Park Golf Course

Fort Cobb

After a mostly wide-open front nine, golfers are in for quite a challenge on the back nine of this par-70 course. There, they'll find a tighter layout and sloping fairways and greens. The course plays to 6,620 yards from the back tees, and tall, thick Oklahoma prairie grass makes up the roughs in the back. Signature hole No. 13 requires a perfect drive with Fort Cobb Lake on the left, roughs on the right and a bunker in front.

Karsten Creek Golf Club

Stillwater

Carved through a forest of blackjack oaks, this course is a stunner — and not for the faint of heart. Karsten Creek is the home course for the Oklahoma State University golf teams, and GOLF magazine ranked it No. 48 in the country on its list of Top 100 Courses You Can Play for 2021-22. The par 72 stretches out to 7,449 yards from the Cowboy Tees. Designed by Tom Fazio, it features several elevation changes and two closing holes where golfers must navigate over and around Lake Louise.

Lake Murray State Park Golf Course

Ardmore

Originally opened in 1965, this mature course makes great use of Lake Murray State Park's landscape with features like a natural waterfall on the par-3 No. 7. Golfers will find tight, tree-lined fairways, doglegs, strategically placed water hazards and Bermuda greens. The par 72 plays to 6,362 yards from the back tees. The modern pro shop is a showpiece built to complement the park's historic Civilian Conservation Corps structures, and there's a driving range on site.

Hiking 🏌

Arcadia Lake Edmond

The Arcadia Lake Multiple-Use Trail runs about 6.4 miles along the northwestern and western shores of Arcadia Lake. The out-and-back trail starts at the park office and ends just outside its disc golf course. It's accessible from Central State Park, Edmond Park and Spring Creek Park. The twisty, winding trail has a single dirt track and is well-marked. It's used by hikers, mountain bikers, cross country runners and nature walkers. There are several alternate trails, including some designated just for hikers.

Black Mesa State Park

Kenton

Hikers can trek to Oklahoma's highest point on the Summit Trail, an 8.4-mile round trip that takes four to six hours. The trail is easy to follow and fairly flat until it reaches the base of the mesa, when it becomes a steady climb. There's not a lot of shade, so everyone should get an early start and bring plenty of water and sunscreen. Hikers should sign the check-in sheet before beginning the hike.

Chickasaw National Recreation Area

Sulphur

Located where the eastern deciduous forest and the mixed-grass prairie meet, this area is filled with a rich variety of flora and fauna. Visitors can explore more than 22 miles of trails of varying length and difficulty, including 2.8-mile, paved Veterans Lake Trail. Those who follow the Bison Pasture Loop, a 1.9-mile gravel trail with some elevation change, might be able to spot the area's bison herd.

Talihina

Talimena State Park serves as the trailhead for this system of 192 miles of trails. The trails run through the Ouachita National Forest and east into Arkansas, leading hikers through pine- and oak-forested mountains and sweeping valleys. The single-track trail system offers segments that will suit all skill levels. Along the way are markers detailing the area's rich history, and spur trails lead to panoramic vistas and recreation areas.

Wilburton

Set amidst the hilly woodlands of the Sans Bois Mountains, this park offers tightly compacted sandstone cliffs and rugged boulders that appeal to rappellers and climbers. There are plenty of options for newer climbers along with more challenging routes. No equipment rentals are available, so climbers will need to bring any gear they might need.

Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge

Cache

The ancient granite mountains that make up the Wichita range make this 59,000-acre preserve one of the region's most beloved climbing areas. The mountains are well-suited for traditional climbing, with more than 300 multi-pitch routes, including some that will challenge even the most experienced climbers. Newer climbers can find easier routes on upper Mount Scott or the area on the western side of Elk Mountain that's known as Elk Slabs.

Eufaula Treehouse Tree-sort

Natural Falls State Park Yurts

Eufaula

Visitors can indulge their childhood fantasies of living in a treehouse by booking a night in one of these three homes. Each is built into a sturdy tree in a remote, wooded area that's only around a mile from Lake Eufaula. The treehouses have a host of amenities, including comfortable beds, bathrooms with showers, microwaves and mini-fridges. One is fully wheelchair accessible.

Cabins at Foss State Park

Foss

Those who dream of tiny house living will want to check out these two cute, cozy cabins. One is all one level and is ADA accessible, while the other has a loft area. Each has a queensized bed and a sleeper sofa. The loft can accommodate more overnight guests, though they'll need to bring air mattresses or sleeping bags. Both cabins have kitchens with appliances.

Oklahoma State Park Yurts

Eastern Oklahoma

Guests can turn camping into glamping by reserving one of the state parks' yurts. The round, tent-like structures feature amenities like beds, microwaves, mini-refrigerators and heating and air-conditioning. The four state parks with yurts offer a variety of unique surroundings. Robbers Cave's two yurts sit right along Lake Carlton, while the five at Natural Falls are tucked away in a wooded area not far from the park's waterfall. At Lake Eufaula, there's a yurt on Hummingbird Beach and two in more secluded areas, while Beavers Bend's yurt is perched on a large deck just off the Lower Mountain Fork River.

TravelOK.com/Parks

Families can stay overnight in a Conestoga wagon or teepee at this farm on the south side of the city. Each has heating and air-conditioning, and most have king-sized beds and private external bathrooms with showers. Guests can meet the farm animals or catch a ride on a train, carousel or zipline when the farm is open to the public. The fall brings more special activities, including a pumpkin patch, hayrides and paintball.

Wall Tents at Osage Hills State Park

Pawhuska

Cold weather needn't derail an Osage Hills campout. Visitors who rent one of the park's two wall tents can stay nice and snug as they relax with a fire going in the wood-burning stoves that are in the tents during the fall and winter. Nestled into a lovely, wooded area, the tents are made of a sturdy canvas that keeps the elements out nicely. They're furnished with cots and pitched on wooden platforms to lessen the chances of visits from any creepy-crawlies. Each sleeps up to six.

Water Cave at Alabaster Caverns State Park

Freedom

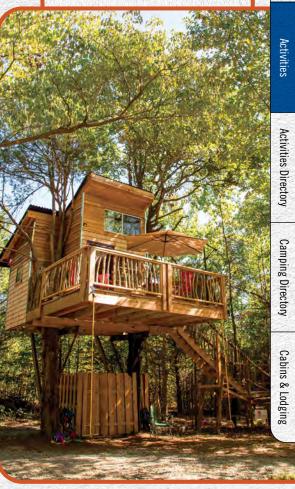

During the warm-weather months, park visitors can experience a truly unique type of primitive camping: sleeping in a cave. The Water Cave, as it's known because of the small waterfall that trickles in the back of it, is open from April 1 through Sept. 30. It accommodates three to 15 people and is just tall enough to stand up in. Advance reservations are suggested, and certain equipment is required for campers.

Alabaster Caverns State Park

Freedom

This park is home to nine bat species — five that inhabit the caverns and four more that hang out in the trees and crevices of Cedar Canyon. Sharp-eyed visitors might spot a few on the cave tour but are more likely to see them flying at night looking for food. Even easier to find is Luna, the park's 6-foot-tall bat mascot, who comes out of hibernation for special events. A variety of wildlife roam the canyon, including lizards, raccoons, deer and the occasional porcupine.

Love Valley Wildlife Management Area

Marietta

This 7,746-acre expanse sits alongside the Red River near the Texas border. Its blackjack and post oak woodlands are a great place for spotting wildlife, including deer, turkey, rabbit, doves, squirrels and various waterfowl. During the winter, bald eagles can often be seen on the river. Those looking for a remote camping spot will find several undesignated primitive camping areas. Hunting is allowed.

Old West Buffalo Company

Pawhuska

Visitors can get up close and personal with a herd of bison at this new, one-of-a-kind encounter. The adventure begins with a film about the history of the bison, how close it came to extinction and the group of Americans that helped save it. Then, the group loads into a wagon and travels through the bison field. On rainy days, guests can instead feed the bison from a covered deck. Everyone gets a chance to see the animals up close and hand-feed them. Before heading out, guests can stop by The Trading Post to shop for souvenirs and grass-fed meats. Tickets are required.

Red Slough Wildlife Management Area

Idabel

Marshes, wetlands, lakes and forestlands make up the habitat types of this 5,814-acre area, producing a fabulous environment for birdwatching. The area is home to 322 bird species, and it's possible for dedicated birders to see more than 100 species a day during the May migration. Among the birds spotted are the purple gallinule and black-bellied whistling duck during the summer and an occasional roseate spoonbill from July through September.

Water Safety Tips (5)

Water recreation can be the cornerstone of any outdoor vacation. However, it also presents various hazards, especially for children.

Here are some water safety tips to help keep everyone safe in the water:

- · Avoid water that is foamy, scummy or discolored.
- Avoid swimming in polluted or algae-affected water.
- Swim in safe or designated swimming areas only.
- Always watch children when they are in or near the water.
- When children are swimming in outdoor bodies of water, a life jacket is always recommended.
- · Always swim with a partner.
- Know your limits and don't push yourself beyond your natural swimming capability.
- · Avoid swallowing water while swimming.
- Shower before and after swimming, and make sure to wash any cuts and scrapes with clean water and soap.
- Check the local weather conditions and forecast before swimming or boating.
- Drink plenty of fluids. It's easy to get dehydrated when you're in the sun all day. If you start feeling dizzy, lightheaded or nauseous, you're probably dehydrated.
   Drink fluids and seek medical attention immediately.
- Diving injuries can be severe, so check the water's depth before you dive in and identify any hidden rocks or other hazards, even if you plan on leaping in feet-first.
- If you are boating, everyone should wear a Coast Guard approved life jacket. In Oklahoma, all vessels must carry one wearable flotation device for each person onboard, and all children under 13 years old must wear their life jackets at all times.
- Be aware that alcohol and boating do not mix. One third of boating deaths are alcohol-related. Oklahoma laws allow only beer and wine to be consumed in public and not other intoxicating beverages.

The following Oklahoma State Parks offer a free life jacket loaner program for children:

Blue-Green Algae

The nation's bodies of water have experienced an increase in the growth of blue-green algae. Here's some safety information and tips on these microscopic organisms:

Blue-green algae (BGA) are microscopic organisms naturally present in reservoirs, lakes and streams. They are usually found in low numbers but can become abundant in very warm, shallow and undisturbed waters that receive a lot of sunlight. Within days, a clear lake or pond can become cloudy or deep green with algae growth. This is called a bloom. In a bloom, BGA may look like thick pea soup or bluish, brownish or reddish-green paint.

Do not swim, boat, ski, play in or ingest water that looks like the above descriptions or that has a scum layer or puffy blobs floating on or near the surface.

BGA may cause a variety of reactions, usually upper respiratory problems, eye irritation, vomiting and diarrhea.

A smaller quantity of toxins may trigger a more severe effect in children than in adults.

Other symptoms include a rash, hives or skin blisters, stomach cramps, diarrhea, vomiting, headache, fever, muscle weakness or difficulty breathing. If you experience any of these symptoms, contact your doctor or the Poison Control Center at (800) 222-1222 immediately.

Pets and livestock are particularly susceptible to the harmful effects of BGA. If you think your pet may have been affected, call your veterinarian right away.

Whether or not you see BGA, take a shower after coming into contact with surface water to wash away any potentially harmful bacteria.

AT VISITSHAWNEE.COM

Kayak, Fish, & Swim at Shawnee Twin Lakes

Between Shawnee & Norman south of I-4O, this peaceful reservoir is ideal for fishing & kayaks. Picnic areas, sandy beaches, camping and plenty of room for other watercraft or wildlife gazing.

Bargain Hunt at Flea Markets & Swap Meets

Flea markets, swap meets, and craft shows nearly every weekend at many locations. Shawnee is a retro and DIY shopper's dream with over a dozen boutique, vintage, and antique shops.

Find all 34 Painted Horses of Shawnee

Since 2007, life-size horse sculptures have made their homes across Shawnee. Over 30 now stand proud throughout the city, more are added each year! Find the list at visitshawnee.com/horses or stop by the Welcome Center.

Fireflight Balloon Festival & Outdoor Nation Expo

Named Oklahoma's best event in 2022! Hot air balloon rides and glows, free concerts, interactive outdoor expo and kids' zone! Annually hosted by the Citizen Potawatomi Nation the second Friday and Saturday in August.

ONE MISSION TO ENTERTAIN OKC

At Riverwind, we've been OKC's number one since we opened our doors sixteen years ago. Why? Because we all work together as one - to make you feel like one in a million. We're home to The River, the metro's number one buffet. And with great restaurants and bars and one beautiful hotel, it's something for every one - all in one place.

405.322.6000 • WWW.RIVERWIND.COM • I-35 AT HIGHWAY 9 WEST, NORMAN, OK

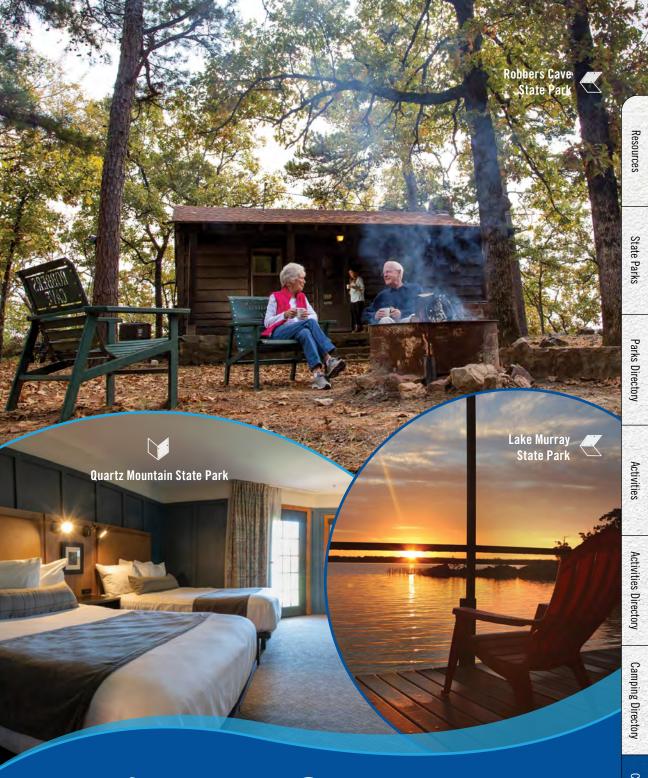

Broken Bow Beavers Bend Hochatown Idabel

The story only gets richer the more you explore it. So chase that waterfall. Get knee deep with a river monster. And fire up those campfire nights. You never know what'll happen next on a road trip like this.

Cabins & Lodging

Whether it's a rustic cabin tucked into a pine forest or a resort with stunning lake views, this section's accommodations let travelers immerse themselves in the outdoors.
